

Forest Opening

Old Wolf: PACK! PACK! PACK!

Wolves: PACK!

Yell once and come running to the Old Wolf.

Old Wolf: Timberwolves to their lairs,
nighttime has fallen and the forest comes alive!

Wolves: (Howl like Wolves)

Gather in sixes (sixers in front, seconds in back)

Old Wolf: Up in the sky is a glorious moon,
the stars are shining bright,
and wolves that know our sacred law
may hunt with us tonight!

Wolves: The Cub respects the Old Wolf,
The Cub does not give in to themselves.

Old Wolf: Who has come to Pack for a night
of good hunting?
*As the Old Wolf points to each Sixer
say number of Scouts in their Six that day*

Sixer: {count} {color} Wolves!
(ex. red sixer would say "Five Red Wolves!")

Old Wolf: Timberwolves, leap from your lairs and be seen beneath the moonlight!!

Wolves: We are the {color} six!
*Led by the sixer, each six marches in a circle
around the Old Wolf and call out their group.
(ex. We are the Red Six!)*

Old Wolf: PACK!

*Wolves stop circling,
stand in the circle around the Old Wolf.*

Old Wolf: And the wolves creep back!

Wolves: Once, Twice and Again

Take one step back with each word.

Old Wolf: Wolves tread lightly in the forest at night,
The earth beneath our paws,

Wolves: Our paws!

Hold both hands up in front of you

Old Wolf: So much to see - we stay alert!
Sharp teeth, sharp eyes, sharp claws

Wolves: Sharp claws!

Flex fingers into claws, then rest arms at sides.

Old Wolf: Together we play, together we work,
And the word of the Old Wolf is Law.
Wolves sit on haunches, fingers making ears on each side of their head.

Wolves: Oooolllllddd Wolf, weeeeell doooooo oooooour BEST!
Jump to standing as you say "BEST!"

Old Wolf: DYB, DYB, DYB, DYB

Wolves: We'll DOB, DOB, DOB, DOB

Old Wolf: Thank you, my Wolves.
I believe you when you say that you are ready to go running with the Pack tonight.

Forest Closing

Old Wolf: PACK! PACK! PACK!

Wolves: PACK!

Yell once and come running to the Old Wolf.

Old Wolf: Timberwolves to their lairs,
the sun is rising in the east!

Wolves: (Howl like Wolves)

Gather in sixes (sixers in front, seconds in back)

Old Wolf: The mice and owls have gone to slumber, fireflies and bats have too.
As a creature of this Forest,
I rest my head now and so shall you.

Old Wolf: Who is creeping back to their lairs for a long and restful nap?
*As the Old Wolf points to each Sixer
say number of Scouts in their Six that day*

Sixer: {count} {color} Wolves!
(ex. red sixer would say "Five Red Wolves!")

Old Wolf: Now the time has come for you to bid the Old Wolf goodbye as we prepare to rest.

Wolves: We are the {color} six!
*Led by the sixer, each six marches in a circle
around the Old Wolf and call out their group.
(ex. We are the Red Six!)*

Old Wolf: PACK!

*Wolves stop circling,
stand in the circle around the Old Wolf.*

Old Wolf: And the wolves creep back!

Wolves: Once, Twice and Again

Take one step back with each word.

Old Wolf: The full moon is fading,
And the flowers are waking,
Shaking off the morning dew.
Now, Timberwolves - What say you?

*Wolves sit on haunches, fingers making ears
on each side of their heads.*

Wolves: Oooolllllddd Wolf, weeeeell doooooo oooooour BEST!
Jump to standing as you say "BEST!"

Old Wolf: DYB, DYB, DYB, DYB

Wolves: DOB, DOB, DOB, DOB

Old Wolf: Sharp teeth, sharp eyes, sharp claws...

Wolves: Sharp claws!

Hold up paws and show their claws.

Old Wolf: Ah yes! The Pack has taught you well. And remember all that you have learned this night:
a sharp mind, a courageous heart, and thoughtful words and deeds will always carry you far in the forest. I know that my Pack Will Do its' Best until we gather again. Sleep well, Timberwolves!
Good hunting!
